Undisputedly the most important Norman church in Sicily, it contains some extraordinary medieval artwork. The facade is grand, but nothing to compare with the vast interior, the walls of which are almost entirely covered with mosaic scenes from the Old and New Testaments. The eye is drawn immediately to the apse, where a magnificent portrait of Christ Pantocrator ("Ruler of All") gestures in blessing and gazes serenely off to one side. 20-minute informal recital at the Cathedral of Monreale, sung by the Mosaic Canadian Vocal Ensemble. Independent lunch.

We'll continue to Agrigento, "Land of the Gods," Described by the Greek poet Pindar as "the most beautiful city of mortals," the symbol of the city is a group of magnificent temples occupying a valley. The origins of Agrigento date from 581 BC. The 5th century marked the apogee of the town, and it was then that the main temples were erected. The classical city comprises of magnificent temples and tombs. The finest are Tempio di Giove (Olympian Zeus), the largest Doric temple ever known; Tempio di Giunone (Juno/Hera), which commands a view of the valley; and Tempio della Concordia, one of the best-preserved temples in the world. Today, Syracuse is a small, sun-bleached provincial capital, but in ancient times it was the western capital of Magna Graecia and one of the greatest cities in the world. Many buildings from this ancient period have survived. Most are in the "archaeological zone," the town's ancient Parco Monumentale della Neapoli (Viale Rizzo). We'll visit the Catacombs of John with its magnificent frescos and the crypt of Marziano, site of the first Christian Church on the island. Independent lunch.

Return to our hotel. Dinner and overnight at our hotel in Seiano or Vico Equense. (B,D)

DAY 8 Saturday, November 23: Pompeii | Rome

Breakfast at our hotel. This morning, we'll explore the incredibly well-preserved remains of this ancient Roman town, where all life was suddenly stopped by an eruption of Vesuvius in the year 79 A.D. Pompeii was destroyed and completely buried during a catastrophic eruption of the volcano Mount Vesuvius. The volcano collapsed higher roof-lines and buried Pompeii under 60 feet of ash and pumice, and it was lost for nearly 1700 years before its accidental rediscovery in 1748. Since then, its excavation has provided an extraordinarily detailed insight into the life of a city at the height of the Roman Empire. We'll leave for Rome, the "Eternal City." See 2,500 years of history in the Roman ruins, 15th century churches, 17th century palaces, and 20th century monuments. Hotel check-in. Dinner and overnight at our hotel in Rome. (B,D)

From the Fontana della Barcaccia (Fountain of the Old Boat), in the middle of the piazza, climb the famous Spanish Steps to the top. Continue to the Trevi Fountain and toss in a coin. Our next stop is the Pantheon. Built more than 1800 years ago, the magnificent Pantheon still stands as a reminder of the great Roman Empire. The name Pantheon refers to the building's original function as a temple for all the gods. It consists of a vast portico of three magnificent arches, and above them three ranges of open galleries adorned with sculptures. In the nave, a small octagonal chapel contains the most precious relic in Lucca, the Holy Face of Lucca. This cedar-wood crucifix and image of Christ, according to the legend, was carved by his contemporary Nicodemus, and miraculously conveyed to Lucca in 782.
